NEW SPRING IDEALS.

All through the store new touches of spring are in evidence, and are longing to be favored with your criticism and patronage. This spring showing is merely a forerunner of what is yet to come in, what will soon be the choicest and best selected stock of

DRY GOODS

Ever brought to this city. Without an exception we feel that the prices on the new goods are fair in the extreme, although many of these first showings are of the exclusive sorts, of which we will not produce duplicates, they are not priced high on that account.

This first showing in March is intended expressly for early buyers, and as choice in some instances is small we suggest that you come as early as possible.

We will be pleased to show you through.

ADJOURNS.

ADDRESSED BY MR. DALZELL

Pennsylvania Congressman Upholds the Payne Plan—Declares Tawney's Proposition to Pay a Bounty Is Unconstitutional—Speaker Henderson Advocates the Fullest Discussion Before Action Is Taken.

Washington, March 7.—The third conference of Republican members of the house of representatives to consider the question of Cuban tariff concessions was held in the hall of the house. About 125 members were present and great interest was manifested owing to the sharp division which has occurred between the supporters of the ways and means proposition for 20 per cent reciprocity, as put forward by Chairman Payne, and the rebate plan proposed by Representative Tawney of Minnesota. Prior to the meeting Speaker Henderson and Representative Cannon of Illinois, the latter chairman of the caucus, called at the White House and were understood to have held a further conference with the president on the situation.

When the caucus met Mr. Cannon occupied the chair with Mr. Loudenslager of New Jersey as secretary. Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania, a member of the ways and means committee and an ardent supporter of the Payne reciprocity plan, was recognized at the outset for an extended speech presenting legal objections to the Tawney proposition. He maintained that this proposition has a bounty to Cubans and is as such unconstitutional. He also urged the impractical character of the bounty plan, saying there were some 15,000 planters dealing through 160 middlemen, so that it would be impossible to make an equitable distribution.

Mr. Dalzell declared that the Republican party had never run away from an issue and it should not run away from this one. He spoke of President Roosevelt's Position and read from the president's message favoring reciprocity. At one point Representative Mahon of Pennsylvania interjected the query:

"Suppose Cuba's products were iron and steel instead of sugar and tobacco, should they receive 20 per cent tariff concessions?"

One of the Philadelphia members added the statement that his district did not favor the reciprocity plan. Mr. Dalzell proceeded with his argument, maintaining that from the standpoint of expediency and practicability the Payne plan offered the best solution of the problem.

Representative Taylor of Ohio, representing the old McKinley district, followed in a speech maintaining that there should be no inroads in the doctrine of protection. Representative Mahon followed up the brief query he had made of Mr. Dalzell by presenting a resolution for the postponement of the entire subject until the next session of congress. In the course of a short speech he declared that the West had stood by Pennsylvania when there was not a smokestack in the West, and in return he proposed to stand by the beet sugar smokestacks of the West.

Representative Long of Kansas spoke in favor of the Payne proposition and had not completed his address when at 11 o'clock he yielded to Speaker Henderson. The latter counseled the fullest discussion before action was taken in order that differences might be reconciled and an amicable adjustment reached. The speaker's suggestion met general acceptance and at 11:15 the conference adjourned until next Tuesday night.

A NOTABLE SPEECH.

Mr. Hanna Addresses the Senate on the Shipping Bill.

Washington, March 7.—A notable speech was made in the senate by Mr. Hanna of Ohio on the pending shipping bill, which he discussed from the standpoint of an American business man. His arguments were carefully arranged, he was always forceful and earnest and at times eloquent. He commanded the undivided attention of the senate and of the galleries and when he closed he received congratulations of many of his colleagues.

Early in the session Mr. Frye, in charge of the pending shipping bill, obtained an agreement that the senate should vote on the measure and all pending amendments at 3 p. m. Monday, March 17, that time being entirely satisfactory to those opposed to the bill.

Before consideration of the shipping bill was resumed an extensive debate occurred on the measure providing for the protection of the president of the United States. Mr. Bacon of Georgia took the ground that in its present shape the bill was an invasion of the jurisdiction of the states and that it ought to be amended radically. Mr. Patterson of Colorado, while he agreed to the general propositions of the bill, urged that it ought not to pass in its present form. No action on the bill was taken.

Against London Dock Charges. Washington, March 7.—The senate committee on commerce has authorized Senator Nelson to make a favorable report on his bill prohibiting the insertion in bills of lading for goods shipped from the United States to London of a clause requiring consignees to pay the London terminal charges.

War May Last Two Years More.

London, March 7.—Cabling from Pretoria, Edgar Wallace, the correspondent of The Daily Mail, says that he sees no reason why the war should not be prolonged for another year and perhaps for two years more.

IS BOSTON'S GUEST.

Prince Henry of Prussia Given a Most Cordial Welcome.

Boston, March 7.—Prince Henry of Prussia was the guest of Boston during the day and his welcome to the city was a cordial one. Governor Crane and Mayor Collins, acting for the state and the city, extended the official courtesies to him, and after the prince ceremoniously returned their calls he went to Cambridge to deliver the gifts of his brother, the kaiser, to the Germania museum, and to receive from Harvard the honorary degree of doctor of laws.

Prince Henry's first act at the Harvard Union shortly after he received the degree was to propose and lead three cheers for President Roosevelt, who is a Harvard alumnus. The prince received a cablegram from the emperor congratulating him upon his newest honor.

At night the prince was given a dinner by the city of Boston and sat at a table with more than 200 of the representative citizens of the commonwealth. He will visit Albany and the United States military academy at West Point on his way to New York.

POISONED BY MAIL.

Woman Dies After Taking a Supposed Sample Headache Powder.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 7.—Sheriff Chapman returned during the afternoon from Lowell, where he has been investigating the death of Mrs. William Klump, aged 20. He found evidence that she was murdered. The woman was sent a supposed headache powder by mail. She used it and died 12 hours later. An autopsy showed that strychnine poison was the cause of death. The sheriff found that the powder was sent in an envelope postmarked at Lowell. It is believed the headache powder was removed and the poison substituted for it.

It was learned that Mrs. William Miller, a neighbor of Mrs. Klump, had also received by mail a headache powder at the same time Mrs. Klump received her package. Mrs. Miller did not take the powder. The powder Mrs. Miller received came in a wrapper used by a firm in Savannah, N. Y., and an analysis showed it to contain enough strychnine to kill several persons.

TO AMEND CONSTITUTION.

Both Houses of the Minnesota Legislature Pass Bills.

St. Paul, March 7.—With the Anderson bill, the board of control, the taxation of grain in elevators and the constitutional amendments the senate had a busy time all day, the net result being that the bill providing for constitutional amendments relating to taxation was passed after several attempts had been made to amend it, all of which failed.

Besides considering these measures the senate waded through a multitude of small bills of local or little importance.

The house substituted the Roberts bill for constitutional amendments for the majority judiciary committee's bill, as amended by Mr. Alley, and passed it by a vote of 65 to 45. Under suspension of the rules it also passed a bill bringing railway companies and other corporations paying a gross earnings tax under the provisions of the act authorizing a public examiner.

BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.

Product Shows an Increase of One Hundred and Forty Per Cent.

Washington, March 7.—C. F. Saylor, the special agent in charge of the beet sugar investigations of the department of agriculture, is in Washington making his annual report. He gave to the Associated Press the following figures regarding the industry during the past year:

The total production of beet sugar in the United States in the season 1901-2 has aggregated 185,000 tons, an increase of 140 per cent from the 77,000 tons produced during the season 1900-1. There were 81 factories in operation in 1900 according to the census figures and 11 more were started in 1901. There are nine factories in course of construction for operation in 1902.

GOES TO CINCINNATI.

Governor Taft Finishes His Testimony Before Congressional Committee.

Washington, March 7.—Governor William H. Taft, having concluded his testimony before the congressional committee, left here during the afternoon for a visit to his home in Cincinnati. While there he will undergo an operation for the ailment which compelled his return home from the Philippines. His present plan is to return to Washington in about a month for a further conference with the president and the secretary of war and to start back for Manila about May 1. His health has very much improved since his return to this country.

Little Interest Manifested.

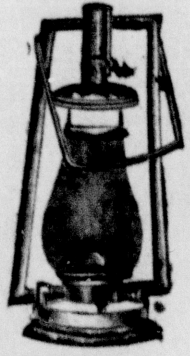

Washington, March 7.—The house devoted another day to debate on the bill to classify the rural free delivery service and to place the carriers under contract. Little interest was manifested in the discussion.

CANNOT BRING ACTION

STATE OF MINNESOTA POWER-LESS TO PROCEED AGAINST

SUPREME COURT'S RULING

Commonwealth Cannot Join Issues

With the Corporation in Any Federal Tribunal—Congress Will Be Asked to Pass an Act Giving the State the Same Standing in the Courts That an Individual Has.

St. Paul, March 7.—The state of Minnesota is barred by the decision of the supreme court from taking action in any court against the Northern Securities company.

This remarkable state of affairs has been made plain to local attorneys interested in the case since receiving copies of the court's decision. Its effect is that the state cannot join issues with the corporation either in the supreme court or circuit courts, and as the state courts cannot reach it the bar is effectual.

As far as the recent suit is concerned the issue seems to be closed, but for future suits of the sort the rule is regarded as the most unfortunate. There is only one way to alter it and that is by an act of congress expressly granting power to the federal courts to entertain such suits. Such a bill may be introduced at this session.

The court denies jurisdiction on the ground that the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies are necessary parties to the suit and that their stockholders must be represented in order to do justice. But should they be brought into the case it would not be a proper case for the supreme court to consider.

The majority stockholders are represented in the case by the Northern Securities company, but the court holds that the rights of the minority stockholders must be protected, and that, therefore, the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies must be brought into the action.

Already a movement is on foot to secure the passage by congress of a bill granting power to the federal courts to entertain cases similar to the so-called merger case. Governor Van Sant has submitted to the legislature a letter from Attorney General Douglas pointing out this necessity and the senate has passed a resolution urging congress to pass an act amending the judiciary act so that the state will have the same standing in a civil case before the circuit court as a citizen now has. It is true that the resolution specifically declared that the act should not apply to the present merger case. Nevertheless it is looked upon as a confession on the part of the state's attorney that the future course of the state in the case is somewhat dubious.

REFUSES TO DISBAND TROOPS.

Tung Fu Hsiang Feels Safer With His Followers Around Him.

Peking, March 7.—The actions of General Tung Fu Hsiang are causing excitement and apprehension at the imperial court. Tung has a considerable body of troops. The dowager empress, through Yung Lu, the first grand secretary, recently wrote to the general offering to maintain him comfortably if he would disband his followers. This Tung refused to do, intimating that he felt safer with his army around him.

The court fears that when his resources fall Tung may be compelled to pillage in order to support his followers and that this would eventually lead to rebellion.

The French legation here resents the dispatches blaming the French for the disorders on the part of Marshal Su's troops in Kwang Si province. The legation declares that it protested against the transfer of Marshal Su and predicted that the present disorders would result. The reinstatement of Marshal Su to his old command is due to the request of the French legation.

MAY TIE UP NAVIGATION.

Danger of a Big Lockout Being Inaugurated on the Great Lakes.

Chicago, March 7.—Upon the result of a series of conferences apparently depends the inauguration of a lockout which may result in tying up navigation on the Great Lakes.

This lockout, if inaugurated, will affect the 2,400 members of the Licensed Tugmen's Protective association, composed of the captains and engineers of the tugs running out of 23 harbors along the lakes. The difficulty is over an alleged attempt on the part of the Great Lakes Towing company, otherwise known as the "tug trust," to lengthen working hours.

Captain Charles McCarroll, national president of the tugmen's union, and Captain Cyrus Sinclair, general manager of the trust, are now conferring with a view to settling the differences. They have as yet reached no agreement and the Great Lakes Towing company is refraining from any move to employ any captains or engineers for the coming year.

Two Schooners Wrecked.

Portsmouth, N. H., March 7.—The northeast storm which accompanied the snow storm drove two fishing schooners to destruction on the coast near here. One vessel was the Kennebunk, Me., schooner Charles W. Parker. The other was the Boston schooner Nellie Bly. The crews escaped.

President's Attitude Unchanged.

Washington, March 7.—The following authorized statement has been made public at the White House: "Any statement that the president has changed his attitude on the Cuban reciprocity business is without the slightest foundation in fact."

Bound for Washington and Oregon.

Helena, Mon., March 7.—About 1,500 persons passed through Helena during the day in Northern Pacific and Burlington homeseekers' excursion trains. The Northern Pacific west-bound train arrived in three sections and the Burlington also came in three sections. Most of the homeseekers on the Northern Pacific came from Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and other middle states of the North. Those on the Burlington came from Missouri and Eastern Kansas. Most of the excursionists were bound for Washington and Oregon.

Former Mayor Under Arrest.

Trenton, N. J., March 7.—Ex-Mayor Frank A. Magowan was arrested here at noon as a fugitive from justice and was locked up at the central police station pending the arrival of extradition papers to take him to Philadelphia. Magowan is indicted in Philadelphia for obtaining money under false pretenses. The amount involved is about $14,000. Magowan obtained the money presumably to be used in some business ventures.

Mrs. Philip D. Armour, Jr., Married.

London, March 7.—The Times publishes a violent article on the growing power of the United Irish league and urges the cabinet, which will meet during the day, to invest the lord lieutenant of Ireland, Earl Cadogan, with power to enforce all the dormant clauses of the crimes act to enable him to proclaim the league as a whole and to deal with it by a change of venue and special juries.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

The Austrian Minister Will Soon Be an Ambassador.

Washington, March 7.—The Austrian minister, Mr. Ladislaus Hengenmuller von Hengenvar, confirms the report that the Austrian-Hungary ministry here is to be elevated into an embassy. He called at the state department to acquaint Secretary Hay with the purpose of his government and the secretary extended his warmest congratulations. Mr. Hengenmuller has been minister for Austria in Washington since Dec. 29, 1894, and is extremely popular with his colleagues in the diplomatic corps. He will be the seventh on the list of ambassadors accredited to Washington. It is expected the change will take place very shortly, and, in fact, it is believed that the matter already has been laid before the proper committees of the reichsrath, which must sanction the change. The next step in order is to erect the United States ministry at Vienna to an embassy and under the law the president has authority to do this as soon as he is formally notified of the fact that Austria-Hungary has taken the initiative.

CHINESE INDEMNITY.

Powers Unable to Agree on Terms for Its Division.

Peking, March 7.—Chinese officials fear that the refusal of the bankers' commission to accept the February installment of the indemnity will render the collection of future installments more difficult. Sir Robert Hart, director of the imperial maritime customs, used every argument of persuasion to impress the viceroys of the various provinces with the importance of promptly contributing their shares of the indemnity. When it becomes known that the 1,820,000 taels of the February installment is lying in the Chinese bank because the foreign governments are unable to agree to terms concerning its division the Chinese will possibly relax their efforts to meet the future installments.

Sir Robert Hart sent letters to the ministers the foreign powers here calling their attention to the complications likely to result if the money, which is deposited in the Chinese bank at Shanghai, should be "destroyed" or "diverted."

CAPTAIN REED RELEASED.

Serves but a Week of His Five-Year Sentence.

Leavenworth, Kan., March 7.—Captain James C. Reed was released from the federal penitentiary during the day on a writ of habeas corpus. He has been behind the walls only one week. Reed's release was the result of a recent ruling of the United States circuit court of appeals, which held that sentences passed on volunteer officers by a courtmartial of regular army officers were void. Reed was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary for receiving bribes. He was a captain in the commissary department at Manila.

Named After Prince Henry.

Indianapolis, March 7.—Indianapolis will claim the distinction of the first American born child to be named after Prince Henry. The board of health has received a return of the birth Sunday of Prince Henry Proeschell. He is the son of George and Regitta Proeschell. Prince Henry Proeschell was born just about the time the special train bearing Prince Henry of Prussia pulled into Indianapolis.

Strike Will Be Settled.

Norfolk, Va., March 7.—Everything points to a settlement of the strike that has tied up the street railway system of the Norfolk Railway and Light company. A lengthy session of the committees from the chamber of commerce, central labor union and the railway company adjourned after having agreed to submit the matter to arbitration. Concessions were made on both sides.

ADJOURNS.

ADDRESSED BY MR. DALZELL

Pennsylvania Congressman Upholds
the Payne Plan—Declares Tawney's Proposition to Pay a Bounty Is Unconstitutional—Speaker Henderson Advocates the Fullest Discussion Before Action Is Taken.

Washington, March 7.—The third conference of Republican members of the house of representatives to consider the question of Cuban tariff concessions was held in the hall of the house. About 125 members were present and great interest was manifested owing to the sharp division which has occurred between the supporters of the ways and means proposition for 20 per cent reciprocity, as put forward by Chairman Payne, and the rebate plan proposed by Representative Tawney of Minnesota. Prior to the meeting Speaker Henderson and Representative Cannon of Illinois, the latter chairman of the caucus, called at the White House and were understood to have held a further conference with the president on the situation.

When the caucus met Mr. Cannon occupied the chair with Mr. Loud-enslager of New Jersey as secretary.
Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania, a member of the ways and means committee and an ardent supporter of the Payne reciprocity plan, was recognized at the outset for an extended speech presenting legal objections to the Tawney proposition. He maintained that this proposition has a bounty to Cubans and is as such unconstitutional. He also urged the impractical character of the bounty plan, saying there were some 15,000 planters dealing through 160 middlemen, so that it would be impossible to make an equitable distribution.

Mr. Dalzell declared that the Republican party had never run away from an issue and it should not run away from this one. He spoke of President Roosevelt's Position and read from the president's message favoring reciprocity. At one point Representative Mahon of Pennsylvania interjected the query:

"Suppose Cuba's products were iron and steel instead of sugar and tobacco, should they receive 20 per cent tariff concessions?"

One of the Philadelphia members added the statement that his district did not favor the reciprocity plan.
Mr. Dalzell proceeded with his argument, maintaining that from the standpoint of expediency and practicability the Payne plan offered the best solution of the problem.

Representative Taylor of Ohio, representing the old McKinley district, followed in a speech maintaining that there should be no inroads in the doctrine of protection. Representative Mahon followed up the brief query he had made of Mr. Dalzell by presenting a resolution for the postponement of the entire subject until the next session of congress. In the course of a short speech he declared that the West had stood by Pennsylvania when there was not a smokestack in the West, and in return he proposed to stand by the beet sugar smokestacks of the West.

Representative Long of Kansas spoke in favor of the Payne proposition and had not completed his address when at 11 o'clock he yielded to Speaker Henderson. The latter counseled the fullest discussion before action was taken in order that differences might be reconciled and an amicable adjustment reached. The speaker's suggestion met general acceptance and at 11:15 the conference adjourned until next Tuesday night.

A NOTABLE SPEECH.

Mr. Hanna Addresses the Senate on the Shipping Bill.

Washington, March 7.—A notable speech was made in the senate by Mr. Hanna of Ohio on the pending shipping bill, which he discussed from the standpoint of an American business man. His arguments were carefully arranged, he was always forceful and earnest and at times eloquent. He commanded the undivided attention of the senate and of the galleries and when he closed he received congratulations of many of his colleagues.

Early in the session Mr. Frye, in charge of the pending shipping bill, obtained an agreement that the senate should vote on the measure and all pending amendments at 3 p. m., Monday, March 17, that time being entirely satisfactory to those opposed to the bill.

Before consideration of the shipping bill was resumed an extensive debate occurred on the measure providing for the protection of the president of the United States. Mr. Bacon of Georgia took the ground that in its present shape the bill was an invasion of the jurisdiction of the states and that it ought to be amended radically. Mr.
Patterson of Colorado, while he agreed to the general propositions of the bill, urged that it ought not to pass in its present form. No action on the bill was taken.

Against London Dock Charges.

Washington, March 7.—The senate committee on commerce has authorized Senator Nelson to make a favorable report on his bill prohibiting the insertion in bills of lading for goods shipped from the United States to London of a clause requiring con-signees to pay the London terminal charges.

War May Last Two Years More.
London, March 7.—Cabling from Pretoria, Edgar Wallace, the correspondent of The Daily Mail, says that he sees no reason why the war should not be prolonged for another year and perhaps for two years more.

Prince Henry of Prussia Given a Most Cordial Welcome.

Boston, March 7.—Prince Henry of Prussia was the guest of Boston during the day and his welcome to the city was a cordial one. Governor Crane and Mayor Collins, acting for the state and the city, extended the official courtesies to him, and after the prince ceremoniously returned their calls he went to Cambridge to deliver the gifts of his brother, the kaiser, to the Germania museum, and to receive from Harvard the honorary degree of doctor of laws.

Prince Henry's first act at the Harvard Union shortly after he received the degree was to propose and lead three cheers for President Roosevelt, who is a Harvard alumnus. The prince received a cablegram from the emperor congratulating him upon his newest honor.

At night the prince was given a dinner by the city of Boston and sat at a table with more than 200 of the representative citizens of the commonwealth. He will visit Albany and the United States military academy at West Point on his way to New York.

Woman Dies After Taking a Supposed Sample Headache Powder.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 7.— Sheriff Chapman returned during the afternoon from Lowell, where he has been investigating the death of Mrs.
William Klump, aged 20. He found evidence that she was murdered. The woman was sent a supposed headache powder by mail. She used it and died 12 hours later. An autopsy showed that strychnine poison was the cause of death. The sheriff found that the powder was sent in an envelope postmarked at Lowell. It is believed the headache powder was removed and the poison substituted for it.

It was learned that Mrs. William Miller, a neighbor of Mrs. Klump, had also received by mail a headache powder at the same time Mrs. Klump received her package. Mrs. Miller did not take the powder. The powder Mrs. Miller received came in a wrapper used by a firm in Savannah, N. Y., and an analysis showed it to contain enough strychnine to kill several persons.

Both Houses of the Minnesota Legislature Pass Bills.

St. Paul, March 7.—With the Anderson bill, the board of control, the taxation of grain in elevators and the constitutional amendments the senate had a busy time all day, the net result being that the bill providing for constitutional amendments relating to taxation was passed after several attempts had been made to amend it, all of which failed.

Besides considering these measures the senate waded through a multitude of small bills of local or little importance.

The house substituted the Roberts bill for constitutional amendments for the majority judiciary committee's bill, as amended by Mr. Alley, and passed it by a vote of 65 to 45. Under suspension of the rules it also passed a bill bringing railway companies and other corporations paying a gross earnings tax under the provisions of the act authorizing a public examiner.

Product Shows an Increase of One Hundred and Forty Per Cent.

Washington, March 7.—C. F. Saylor, the special agent in charge of the beet sugar investigations of the department of agriculture, is in Washington making his annual report. He gave to the Associated Press the following figures regarding the industry during the past year:

The total production of beet sugar in the United States in the season 1901-2 has aggregated 185,000 tons, an increase of 140 per cent from the 77, 000 tons produced during the season 1900-1. There were 81 factories in operation in 1900 according to the census figures and 11 more were started in 1901. There are nine factories in course of construction for operation in 1902.

GOES TO CINCINNATI.

Governor Taft Finishes His Testimony Before Congressional Committee.

Washington, March 7.—Governor William H. Taft, having concluded his testimony before the congressional committee, left here during the afternoon for a visit to his home in Cincinnati. While there he will undergo an operation for the ailment which compelled his return home from the Philippines. His present plan is to return to Washington in about a month for a further conference with the president and the secretary of war and to start back for Manila about May 1.
His health has very much improved since his return to this country.

Washington, March 7.—The house devoted another day to debate on the bill to classify the rural free delivery service and to place the carriers under contract. Little interest was manifested in the discussion.

Commonwealth Cannot Join Issues

With the Corporation in Any Federal Tribunal—Congress Will Be Asked to Pass an Act Giving the State the Same Standing in the Courts That an Individual Has.

St. Paul, March 7.—The state of Minnesota is barred by the decision of the supreme court from taking action in any court against the Northern Securities company.

This remarkable state of affairs has been made plain to local attorneys interested in the case since receiving copies of the court's decision. Its effect is that the state cannot join issues with the corporation either in the supreme court or circuit courts, and as the state courts cannot reach it the bar is effectual.

As far as the recent suit is concerned the issue seems to be closed, but for future suits of the sort the rule is regarded as the most unfortunate. There is only one way to alter it and that is by an act of congress expressly granting power to the federal courts to entertain such suits.
Such a bill may be introduced at this session.

The court denies jurisdiction on the ground that the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies are necessary parties to the suit and that their stockholders must be represented in order to do justice. But should they be brought into the case it would not be a proper case for the supreme court to consider.

The majority stockholders are represented in the case by the Northern Securities company, but the court holds that the rights of the minority stockholders must be protected, and that, therefore, the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies must be brought into the action.

Already a movement is on foot to secure the passage by congress of a bill granting power to the federal courts to entertain cases similar to the so-called merger case. Governor Van Sant has submitted to the legislature a letter from Attorney General Douglas pointing out this necessity and the senate has passed a resolution urging congress to pass an act amending the judiciary act so that the state will have the same standing in a civil case before the circuit court as a citizen now has. It is true that the resolution specifically declared that the act should not apply to the present merger case. Nevertheless it is looked upon as a confession on the part of the state's attorney that the future course of the state in the case is somewhat dubious.

Tung Fu Hsiang Feels Safer With His Followers Around Him.

Peking, March 7.—The actions of General Tung Fu Hsiang are causing excitement and apprehension at the imperial court. Tung has a considerable body of troops. The dowager empress, through Yung Lu, the first grand secretary, recently wrote to the general offering to maintain him comfortably if he would disband his followers. Tung refused to do so, intimating that he felt safer with his army around him.

The court fears that when his resources fail Tung may be compelled to pillage in order to support his followers and that this would eventually lead to rebellion.

The French legation here resents the dispatches blaming the French for the disorders on the part of Marshal Su's troops in Kwang Si province. The legation declares that it protested against the transfer of Marshal Su and predicted that the present disorders would result. The reinstatement of Marshal Su to his old command is due to the request of the French legation.

Danger of a Big Lockout Being Inaugurated on the Great Lakes.

Chicago, March 7.—Upon the result of a series of conferences apparently depends the inauguration of a lockout which may result in tying up navigation on the Great Lakes.

This lockout, if inaugurated, will affect the 2,400 members of the Licensed Tugmen's Protective association, composed of the captains and engineers of the tugs running out of 28 harbors along the lakes. The difficulty is over an alleged attempt on the part of the Great Lakes Towing company, otherwise known as the "tug trust," to lengthen working hours.

Captain Charles McCarroll, national president of the tugmen's union, and Captain Cyrus Sinclair, general manager of the trust, are now con-fering with a view to settling the differences. They have as yet reached no agreement and the Great Lakes Towing company is refraining from any move to employ any captains or engineers for the coming year.

Two Schooners Wrecked.

Portsmouth, N. H., March 7.—The northeast storm which accompanied the snow storm drove two fishing schooners to destruction on the coast near here. One vessel was the Kennebunk, Me., schooner Charles W.
Parker. The other was the Boston schooner Nellie Bly. The crews escaped.

President's Attitude Unchanged.

Washington, March 7.—The following authorized statement has been made public at the White House:
"Any statement that the president has changed his attitude on the Cuban reciprocity business is without the slightest foundation in fact."

Bound for Washington and Oregon.

Helena, Mon., March 7.—About 1,500 persons passed through Helena during the day in Northern Pacific and Burlington homeseekers' excursion trains. The Northern Pacific westbound train arrived in three sections and the Burlington also came in three sections. Most of the homeseekers on the Northern Pacific came from Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and other middle states of the north. Those on the Burlington came from Missouri and Eastern Kansas. Most of the excursionists were bound for Washington and Oregon.

Trenton, N. J., March 7.—Ex-Mayor Frank A. Magowan was arrested here at noon as a fugitive from justice and was locked up at the central police station pending the arrival of extradition papers to take him to Philadelphia. Magowan is indicted in Philadelphia for obtaining money under false pretenses. The amount involved is about $14,000. Magowan obtained the money presumably to be used in some business ventures.

Mrs. Philip D. Armour, Jr., Married.

London, March 7.—The Times publishes a violent article on the growing power of the United Irish league and urges the cabinet, which will meet during the day, to invest the lord lieutenant of Ireland, Earl Cadogan, with power to enforce all the dormant clauses of the crimes act to enable him to proclaim the league as a whole and to deal with it by a change of venue and special juries.

The Austrian Minister Will Soon Be an Ambassador.

Washington, March 7.—The Austrian minister, Mr. Ladislaus Hengenmuller von Hengenvar, confirms the report that the Austrian-Hungary ministry here is to be elevated into an embassy. He called at the state department to acquaint Secretary Hay with the purpose of his government and the secretary extended his warmest congratulations. Mr. Hengenmuller has been minister for Austria in Washington since Dec. 29, 1894, and is extremely popular with his colleagues in the diplomatic corps. He will be the seventh on the list of ambassadors accredited to Washington. It is expected the change will take place very shortly, and, in fact, it is believed that the matter already has been laid before the proper committees of the reichsrath, which must sanction the change. The next step in order is to erect the United States ministry at Vienna to an embassy and under the law the president has authority to do this as soon as he is formally notified of the fact that Austria-Hungary has taken the initiative.

CHINESE INDEMNITY.

Powers Unable to Agree on Terms for Its Division.

Peking, March 7.—Chinese officials fear that the refusal of the bankers' commission to accept the February installment of the indemnity will render the collection of future installments more difficult. Sir Robert Hart, director of the imperial maritime customs, used every argument of persuasion to impress the viceroys of the various provinces with the importance of promptly contributing their shares of the indemnity. When it becomes known that the 1,820,000 taels in the February installment is lying in the Chinese bank because the foreign governments are unable to agree to terms concerning its division the Chinese will possibly relax their efforts to meet the future installments.

Sir Robert Hart sent letters to the ministers of the foreign powers here calling their attention to the complications likely to result if the money, which is deposited in the Chinese bank at Shanghai, should be "destroyed or diverted."

Serves but a Week of His Five-Year Sentence.

Leavenworth, Kan., March 7.—Captain James C. Reed was released from the federal penitentiary during the day on a writ of habeas corpus. He has been behind the walls only one week. Reed's release was the result of a recent ruling of the United States circuit court of appeals, which held that sentences passed on volunteer officers by a courtmartial of regular army officers were void. Reed was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary for receiving bribes. He was a captain in the commissary department at Manila.

Indianapolis, March 7.—Indianapolis will claim the distinction of the first American born child to be named after Prince Henry. The board of health has received a return of the birth Sunday of Prince Henry Proschell. He is the son of George and Regitta Proschell. Prince Henry Proschell was born just about the time the special train bearing Prince Henry of Prussia pulled into Indianapolis.

Strike Will Be Settled.

Norfolk, Va., March 7.—Everything points to a settlement of the strike that has tied up the street railway system of the Norfolk Railway and Light company. A lengthy session of the committees from the chamber of commerce, central labor union and the railway company adjourned after having agreed to submit the matter to arbitration. Concessions were made on both sides.

Ole Erickson got his picture in the St. Paul Dispatch but the make up "artist" got his wires crossed and the name of O. E. Hellstrom appeared beneath the cut with the following bouquet: "Candidate for Republican Nomination for Alderman First Ward, primary election, March 18, 1902. Mr. Hillstrom is among our best local speakers and is always a hard worker. He is honest and true, and would make a model alderman."

PHOTOGRAPHS ON FABRICS.

Altoona (Pa.) Man's Experiments With a New Process.

Clarence R. Ohlweiler of Altoona, a graduate of Lehigh university, is experimenting with a process for reproducing photographs on fabrics.

The method consists in a deposition of silver, gold and platinum from various salts of those metals, says the Philadelphia Press. It is said to be satisfactory in every respect, and the work has been subjected to extreme tests to insure its absolute permanence. A print was boiled in water for a quarter of an hour, and no change was noticeable after boiling. The picture is not only on the surface, but extends through the fabric.

What Morgan Made in 1901.

Two well informed Wall street men were discussing J. Pierpont Morgan. Said one, according to the New York Press, "I have had a long talk with a member of his firm, and, while he let fall no secrets, yet from what I could gather Mr. Morgan made last year $42,000,000." The other agreed that the estimate was practically correct from what he could learn.

If the actions are started in Minnesota, as announced, Judge Amidon will hear them as he has been assigned to the Minnesota district for almost the remainder of 1902, as Judge Lochren will sit in the place of Judge Caldwell, in the United States circuit court of appeals.

MONEY

Will Be Forced Upon You If You Buy Lots or Lands Now.

I have a few 5 acre farms left on Oak street south of the N. P. shops and some near that avenue where a man can live, keep a cow, poultry and other animals that are usually kept on a farm, and after breakfast or dinner walk to said shops in ten minutes. I have land within a half-mile of the Brainerd Lumber Co.'s yard and southeast of it, that I will sell in 10, 20 or 40 acre pieces. Lands within a half-mile of the Northern Pacific Railway shops in 40 acre or smaller pieces.

Rich agricultural farm, grass and stock land in Crow Wing county.

I have some 5 acre tracts with residences on for sale.

I have lots in the various parts of the city of Brainerd.

Cheap lots and dear lots; business lots and residence lots.

If desired I will help a man to get a house on some lots or on a farm and near enough to the shops so he can go home to dinner within the noon hour.

Why pay rent when you can pay for a home with the same money.

Call and see me and see if any of the land or lots I have suit you.

MILLERS MAY

ORGANIZE SOON

A Meeting Held in this City to Try and Settle the Flour War in Brainerd.

Cale & Bane Started the Ball Rolling by Cutting the Price for Cash.

Brainerd has been in the throes of a flour war that has been demoralizing in some respects but it is now hoped that the matter will be amicably settled.

It seems that the trouble began from the time when Cale & Bane placed everything on a cash basis. They of course reduced the price of the best grade flour at that time figuring of course that by getting cash they could afford to do this.

Graham Bros. were the first to resent the onslaught and they went to Cale & Bane one better. Then Albert Angel got in and made a cut. When the merchants found that they were selling flour for less money than it cost at wholesale they appealed to the millers for help in the matter to see if something could not be done.

There was a meeting of the millers of the different towns and cities in the northern part of the state in this city a few days ago to discuss the question.

There was nothing definite done at the meeting as the gentlemen who met could not agree, but it is thought that in the near future a meeting will be held for the purpose of organizing an association for mutual protection.

JOHN L.'S AWFUL THIRST.

Ex-Champion Pugilist Says It Broke Up His Show.

With the air of a man to whom a financial crash is but an incident in this vale of tears, John L. Sullivan accounted for the collapse of his "Uncle Tom's Cabin" show in Jersey City the other day by saying simply:

"The whole trouble was that my awful thirst bust up the show."

None of the members of the company disagreed with John L. Frank Remington, the Lawyer Marks of the company, said:

"The trouble was we couldn't make money fast enough to pay John L.'s hotel bills. He must have consumed an awful lot of food."

"Food? Food is good. You mean the old hard stuff," grunted the actor-pugilist. "But I have reformed. It's nothing but cold, cold water for yours truly after this. I am going to be a pattern for every boy in the land. Proud mothers can tell their sons to follow in John L.'s footsteps, and they'll be led every time to the ice cooler. It's going to be a sad story for the whisky trust from now on. They'll miss my thirst all right. I've got a friend in Cedar Springs, N. Y., who keeps a hotel. I'm going there and drink all the water in the town. When I get back to New York, I'll be a sight. Strangers will point at me and say, 'There's a man who never had a drink in his life.'"

Melancholy indeed was the outlook which confronted Uncle Tom, Topsy, Little Eva, Eliza, Simon Legree, Lawyer Marks and several slaves when they awoke the other morning in the show's car in the yards of the Pennsylvania road, says the New York World. George B. Downing, manager of the company, had faded away unexpectedly regardless of a financial stringency existing in the car. Outside it was cold. Uncle Tom and a couple of slaves intimated that breakfast would be a good thing. Topsy tried to cheer Eliza's spirits by telling her that the river was full of cakes of ice and that she could easily walk across to New York.

George Watson, the porter in charge of the car, brought matters to a head. There was $20 coming to him for services. Quietly he went up to the district court in the city hall and got out an attachment on the cakes of ice and other scenery in the car. That was the final blow.

No very violent protest had been made at Trenton, where the company played to a one hundred and fifty dollar house and where John L.'s "food" bill in one evening amounted to $33. The reason was that one of the slaves had unguardedly protested at another Jersey town, where most of the receipts had been swept away to meet the ex-champion's "food" bill and he had received the punishment that old John L. used to administer to his ring victims.

"How could any show support a thirst like that?" whispered Little Eva, pointing in the direction of Simon Legree, otherwise Mr. Sullivan. The ex-champion rose to the occasion.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "yours truly is not doing any ducking or side stepping to dodge the fact that his horrible thirst has caused all this trouble. I've got some friends left. You'll all get breakfast, anyway, and get over to New York on the ferry. Those cakes of ice are too slippery. Even Eliza might fall in, and the water is real."

Mr. Remington later produced the

MONEY

Will Be Forced Upon You If You Buy Lots or Lands Now.

I have a few 5 acre farms left on Oak street south of the N. P. shops and some near that avenue where a man can live, keep a cow, poultry and other animals that are usually kept on a farm, and after breakfast or dinner walk to said shops in ten minutes. I have land within a half-mile of the Brainerd Lumber Co.'s yard and southeast of it, that I will sell in 10, 20 or 40 acre pieces. Lands within a half-mile of the Northern Pacific Railway shops in 40 acre or smaller pieces.

Rich agricultural farm, grass and stock land in Crow Wing county.

I have some 5 acre tracts with residences on for sale.

MILLERS MAY ORGANIZE SOON

Cale & Bane Started the Ball Rolling by Cutting the Price for Cash.

Brainerd has been in the throes of a flour war that has been demoralizing in some respects but it is now hoped that the matter will be amicably settled.

It seems that the trouble began from the time when Cale & Bane placed everything on a cash basis. They of course reduced the price of the best grade flour at that time figuring of course that by getting cash they could afford to do this.

Graham Bros. were the first to resent the onslaught and they went Cale & Bane one better. Then Albert Angel got in and made a cut. When the merchants found that they were selling flour for less money than it cost at wholesale they appealed to the millers for help in the matter to see if something could not be done.

There was a meeting of the millers of the different towns and cities in the northern part of the state in this city a few days ago to discuss the question.

There was nothing definite done at the meeting as the gentlemen who met could not agree, but it is thought that in the near future a meeting will be held for the purpose of organizing an association for mutual protection.

JOHN L.'S AWFUL THIRST.

Ex-Champion Pugilist Says It Broke Up His Show.

With the air of a man to whom a financial crash is but an incident in this vale of tears, John L. Sullivan accounted for the collapse of his "Uncle Tom's Cabin" show in Jersey City the other day by saying simply:

"The whole trouble was that my awful thirst bust up the show."

"The trouble was we couldn't make money fast enough to pay John L.'s hotel bills. He must have consumed an awful lot of food."

"Food? Food is good. You mean the old hard stuff," grunted the actor-pugilist. "But I have reformed. It's nothing but cold, cold water for yours truly after this. I am going to be a pattern for every boy in the land. Proud mothers can tell their sons to follow in John L.'s footsteps, and they'll be led every time to the ice cooler. It's going to be a sad story for the whisky trust from now on. They'll miss my thirst all right. I've got a friend in Cedar Springs, N. Y., who keeps a hotel. I'm going there and drink all the water in the town. When I get back to New York, I'll be a sight. Strangers will point at me and say, 'There's a man who never had a drink in his life.'"

Melancholy indeed was the outlook which confronted Uncle Tom, Topsy, Little Eva, Eliza, Simon Legree, Lawyer Marks and several slaves when they awoke the other morning in the show's car in the yards of the Pennsylvania road, says the New York World. George B. Downing, manager of the company, had faded away unexpectedly regardless of a financial stringency existing in the car. Outside it was cold. Uncle Tom and a couple of slaves intimated that breakfast would be a good thing. Topsy tried to cheer Eliza's spirits by telling her that the river was full of cakes of ice and that she could easily walk across to New York.

George Watson, the porter in charge of the car, brought matters to a head. There was $20 coming to him for services. Quietly he went up to the district court in the city hall and got out an attachment on the cakes of ice and other scenery in the car. That was the final blow.

No very violent protest had been made at Trenton, where the company played to a one hundred and fifty dollar house and where John L.'s "food" bill in one evening amounted to $33. The reason was that one of the slaves had unguardedly protested at another Jersey town, where most of the receipts had been swept away to meet the ex-champion's "food" bill and he had received the punishment that old John L. used to administer to his ring victims.

"How could any show support a thirst like that?" whispered Little Eva, pointing in the direction of Simon Legree, otherwise Mr. Sullivan. The ex-champion rose to the occasion.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "yours truly is not doing any ducking or side stepping to dodge the fact that his horrible thirst has caused all this trouble. I've got some friends left. You'll all get breakfast, anyway, and get over to New York on the ferry. Those cakes of ice are too slippery. Even Eliza might fall in, and the water is real." Mr. Remington later produced the

All that is Mortal of the Late James Dewar Placed in Resting Place.

Services Conducted under Auspices
of Masonic Lodge, Rev. G. H.
Davis Officiating.

One of the largest funerals in the history of the city of Brainerd was the one which was held this afternoon when the last sad rites over the remains of the late James Dewar were solemnized. For two days the remains have been lying in state in the Masonic temple and during that time it is estimated that no less than five hundred people passed in and out to view the remains. The death of this man seems to have struck a tender spot in the hearts of the people of this city as no man could have been honored more than he since his death. There was that fraternal solicitude about the arrangements for the funeral, that personal interest taken by some of his closest admirers and that silent respect of the entire community that speaks volumes in a breath, which all goes to show that after all wealth and fame in this cruel world count for naught as compared with a life with a full measure of honesty and truth. Such was the life of James Dewar, and in his death there is a lesson which if learned means much, a religion which if kept discounts all the creeds that are preached every day.

This afternoon at the hour of the funeral hundreds of people clamored for admission to the Masonic hall to join in the last solemn services. All the civic and fraternal societies in the city turned out in a body and as the remains were borne to their last resting place it was an imposing sight.

The services were held in the Masonic hall at 2:30 o'clock, the Masonic burial ritual being used. Rev. George H. Davis, of Mankato, officiated at the service and delivered a masterly address. The Aeolian quartette furnished music for the occasion. The procession moved about 3:30 o'clock and it was the longest ever seen in this city. The A. O. U. W., the I. O. O. F., the K. P.'s and Masons were all in line, and this column, headed by the consolidated bands of the city, marched down Sixth street toward the cemetery.

The following acted as pallbearers: H. Spalding, George Ames, N. B. Chase, John Frater, J. N. Nevers and S. F. Alderman.

The floral contributions were the most elegant that have ever been seen in Brainerd, and were a fitting tribute to the man. The Odd Fellows had a beautiful three link design made of white and red carnations. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sanborn and the employees of the City Hotel have a beautiful bouquet of white roses with large palm leaves. Hon. A. F. Ferris sent up from St. Paul a large cluster of beautiful white lilies. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ames contributed a pillow of beautiful white roses and carnations. G. W. Chadborne and F. B. Johnson contributed a bouquet of red carnations. Aurora Lodge, No. 100, had a beautiful design in varied colored carnations of a square and compass. Little Norman Johnson, son of P. M. Johnson, did not forget his old friend and placed on the bier a bouquet of beautiful carnations. White Cross Lodge, K. P., contributed a large design of a triangle of different kinds of flowers. One of the most beautiful tokens was from the First National Bank, a mammoth cluster of red American beauties. The Brainerd band contributed a large design of a harp made of carnations white and red. The Retail Liquor dealers' Association contributed a beautiful pillow, as did also the Brainerd fire department, both heavily laden with red and white carnations. A large bouquet of white roses were received from E. M. Conrad, of St. Paul.

The Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., sent a large wreath of flowers. The cross and crown in appropriate colors of carnations was the offering from Ascalon Commandry, K. T. A keystone design of carnations and roses was from Brainerd Chapter, R. A. M., and the anchor and shield in roses was a particularly handsome token from the A. O. U. W. lodge. Interment took place in Evergreen cemetery. Until Donald Dewar, a brother of the deceased arrived from Lachute, Canada, it was not decided positively where deceased would be buried but it was his wish that it be in Evergreen cemetery where he had some time ago purchased a lot for the purpose.

ELKS SESSION LAST NIGHT.

The Meeting Was Very Largely Attended Several Candidates Were Initiated
Into the Order.

There was a very large attendance at the meeting of Brainerd Lodge, B. P. O. E., last night and the most interesting sessions for sometime were held.

The following novices were the cause of much disturbance last night: R. G. Vallentyne, J. W. Koop, A. M. Opsahl, Jens Molstad, John Cochran, Attorney Scribner, of Backus and E. Britton, of Staples.

After the initiatory work a very sumptuous banquet was served in the new dining room, it being the first time that this room has been used.

First Conference.

The first council between Major James McLaughlin of the Indian service and the Red Lake Chippewas took place yesterday. Chiefs and braves from all over the reservation were there to listen to his proposition for the purchase of the west end of the Red Lake reservation.

It is hard to determine the sentiment of the Indians, but there appears to be no very strong opposition to the proposition. The major has the confidence of the Indians as a man who will see their rights are fully protected and one whose promises are always fulfilled by the government, and this will go far towards simplifying matters.

The anticipated interference upon the part of self-appointed "Indian attorneys" will have to be met, but at this time the outlook seems bright for a successful termination of the negotiations.

NEW FREIGHT RATES HAVE BEEN FILED

Been Announced.

CARLOAD LOT RATES REDUCED.

Smaller Jobbers Given an Opportunity to Save Freight on Goods Brought in.

The following, of interest to the cities and towns in Northern Minnesota and North Dakota, Brainerd included in the list, is taken from the Minneapolis Times:

"Copies of new merchandise tariffs for several towns in northern Minnesota will be filed with the railroad commission today by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads.

"These tariffs will take the place of the distributing tariffs formerly allowed to St. Cloud, Crookston and Fergus Falls, but cancelled by the roads when they substituted their reduced distance tariffs some weeks ago.

"It was understood that the new tariffs granted to the three towns in question will be allowed to others, or possibly six or eight in all.

"Among them are Moorhead, Brainerd, Fergus Falls, Crookston, St. Cloud, East Grand Forks and others.

"The same concessions will be allowed to Fargo, Grand Forks and one or two other towns in North Dakota, but their tariffs will be filed with the railroad commission of that state.

"One of the chief complaints made against the former tariffs, it is said, was the fact that the Milwaukee & St. Paul line handled freights from Chicago direct into Fargo, N. D., but not through this gateway, at a lower figure than the same freights were handled by the various other lines from Chicago to Minneapolis plus the rates from this city to Fargo.

"In other words, the rates on the Milwaukee line were less than the sum total of the rates from Chicago to Minneapolis and from Minneapolis to Fargo.

"The tariffs to be filed to-day grant further reduction and make the rate so low that the sum of the rate from Chicago to Minneapolis and from Minneapolis to Fargo will be on the same level as that on the Milwaukee line from Chicago direct to Fargo. The other towns indicated will be allowed to enjoy the same equality. The tariffs apply mostly to groceries. It was stated yesterday that the various business interests of the towns mentioned are fully satisfied with the tariffs as drawn up by the railroads. In such case the new tariffs will dispose of the hearing set for to-morrow before the commission."

Cass Lakers All Right.

Relative to the reported prospective evictions of settlers and squatters on the reservoir lands at the headwaters of the Mississippi, Representative Fletcher said yesterday: "I do not think there will be any action of this kind for some time, at least. The reason is that the lands have not yet been surveyed and until this is done the department will not know whether the settlers are on reserved land or not. There is a provision in the river and harbor bill for this survey, which will be made next summer."

Getting Ready for Business.

The Mississippi & Rum River Boom Co. have begun to put themselves in readiness to resume operations as soon as the ice is off the river. The company put a crew of men at work driving pilings to hold the booms, a work that has to be done each spring and the boats are being overhauled and put in shape. Each winter the pilings are forced out by the ice and these have to be resharpened and driven back into place. The ice on the river is getting a little too soft for this work and the company say they will probably have to lay off men Tuesday night and wait until the ice is gone and then use the boats to finish driving the pilings, unless it turns cold and the river freezes again. In different storage booms along the river there are in the neighborhood of 125,000,000 feet of logs, insuring a good supply for the mills when the river opens. In addition to these there are 125,000,000 additional scattered along between Minneapolis and Brainerd. If the water is high enough these last will be utilized and those in the booms reserved until they are required to give the mills a steady supply.—Mississippi Lumberman.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WHEN WE WERE TWENTY-ONE."

It is generally conceded that Mr. Esmond has given to the stage a very remarkable and wholesome play, "When We Were Twenty-One" which comes at the right time. It comes as a wholesome check to decadence and degeneracy. It is sweet as mountain air that has been kissed by the heather, and all the men are brave, sympathetic, honest, loyal fellows. They are not ashamed to wear their hearts on their sleeves, they do not care how many daws peck at them, so wrote the critic of the New York Herald about the play "When We Were Twenty-One," which will be presented by a fine company at the Brainerd Opera House on Monday evening, March 10.

The Herald was not alone in its opinion; the critics of New York without a dissenting voice, hailed the play as a great acquisition to our present meagre dramatic literature. The press was so unanimous in their praise, that the manager of the Knickerbocker theatre, (where the play was produced) was tempted to slightly change Richard Brinsley Sheridan's famous line: "When they do agree among the press, their unanimity is wonderful." The success of the play was immediate, and being a valuable piece of dramatic property, there were many who desired to obtain it. The engagement of the best company in the country is a guarantee our play-goers will have a great performance.

The play requires the most delicate shading and artistic atmosphere. An ordinary company would fail to appreciate the subtleties of Esmond's delicious writing. This has been carefully guarded against by presenting an organization far above the average in point of dramatic ability.

The sale of seats will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at H. P. Dunn & Co's drug store. Regular prices.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

That very interesting comedy, "Charley's Aunt," will be the attraction at the Brainerd Opera House for St. Patrick's day, March 17, and no better selection could be made. Al Mattes, who is well known to all in the city, assumes the very amusing role of the "aunt" from Brazil, "where the nut comes from," and his reputation in this sort of characterization is well known. The story is an interesting one. Jack Chesney and Charles Wykom are attending Oxford college and Charley expects his aunt from Brazil and on the day she is supposed to arrive invites Miss Amy Spettigue and Miss Kitty Verdum to meet her at lunch in Mr. Chesney's room. The unexpected happens. Charley's aunt is detained and the boys are in a stew. They therefore usher Lord Fencourt Babberly into play and make him dress like a woman and pass him off as "Charley's Aunt." Charley's aunt finally does arrive and then the very complicated situations follow each other in rapid succession. Seats on sale Saturday.

LAST SAD RITES ARE SOLEMNIZED

James Dewar Placed in Resting Place.

Services Conducted under Auspices
Davis Officiating.

One of the largest funerals in the history of the city of Brainerd was the one which was held this afternoon when the last sad rites over the remains of the late James Dewar were solemnized. For two days the remains have been lying in state in the Masonic temple and during that time it is estimated that no less than five hundred people passed in and out to view the remains. The death of this man seems to have struck a tender spot in the hearts of the people of this city as no man could have been honored more than he since his death. There was that fraternal solicitude about the arrangements for the funeral, that personal interest taken by some of his closest admirers and that silent respect of the entire community that speaks volumes in a breath, which all goes to show that after all wealth and fame in this cruel world count for naught as compared with a life with a full measure of honesty and truth. Such was the life of James Dewar, and in his death there is a lesson which if learned means much, a religion which if kept discounts all the creeds that are preached every day.

This afternoon at the hour of the funeral hundreds of people clamored for admission to the Masonic hall to join in the last solemn services. All the civic and fraternal societies in the city turned out in a body and as the remains were borne to their last resting place it was an imposing sight.

The services were held in the Masonic hall at 2:30 o'clock, the Masonic burial ritual being used. Rev. George H. Davis, of Mankato, officiated at the service and delivered a masterly address. The Aeolian quartette furnished music for the occasion. The procession moved about 3:30 o'clock and it was the longest ever seen in this city. The A. O. U. W., the I. O. O. F., the K. P.'s and Masons were all in line, and this column, headed by the consolidated bands of the city, marched down Sixth street toward the cemetery.

The following acted as pallbearers: H. Spalding, George Ames, N. B. Chase, John Frater, J. N. Nevers and S. F. Alderman.

The floral contributions were the most elegant that have ever been seen in Brainerd, and were a fitting tribute to the man. The Odd Fellows had a beautiful three link design made of white and red carnations. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sanborn and the employees of the City Hotel have a beautiful bouquet of white roses with large palm leaves. Hon. A. F. Ferris sent up from St. Paul a large cluster of beautiful white lillies. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ames contributed a pillow of beautiful white roses and carnations. G. W. Chadborne and F. B. Johnson contributed a bouquet of red carnations. Aurora Lodge, No. 100, had a beautiful design in varied colored carnations of a square and compass. Little Norman Johnson, son of P. M. Johnson, did not forget his old friend and placed on the bier a bouquet of beautiful carnations. White Cross Lodge, K. P., contributed a large design of a triangle of different kinds of flowers. One of the most beautiful tokens was from the First National Bank, a mammoth cluster of red American beauties. The Brainerd bank contributed a large design of a harp made of carnations white and red. The Retail Liquor Dealers' Association contributed a beautiful pillow, as did also the Brainerd fire department, both heavily laden with red and white carnations. A large bouquet of white roses were received from E. M. Conrad, of St. Paul.

The Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., sent a large wreath of flowers. The cross and crown in appropriate colors of carnations was the offering from Ascalon Commandry, K. T. A. A keystone design of carnations and roses was from Brainerd Chapter, R. A. M., and the anchor and shield in roses was a particularly handsome token from the A. O. U. W. lodge.

Interment took place in Evergreen cemetery. Until Donald Dewar, a brother of the deceased arrived from Lachute, Canada, it was not decided positively where deceased would be buried but it was his wish that it be in Evergreen cemetery where he had some time ago purchased a lot for the purpose.

ELKS SESSION LAST NIGHT.

The Meeting Was Very Largely Attended
Several Candidates Were Initiated
Into the Order.

There was a very large attendance at the meeting of Brainerd Lodge, B. P. O. E., last night and the most interesting sessions for sometime were held.

The following novices were the cause of much disturbance last night: R. G. Vallentyne, J. W. Koop, A. M. Opsahl, Jens Molstad, John Cochran, Attorney Scribner, of Backus and E. Britton, of Staples.

After the initiatory work a very sumptuous banquet was served in the new dining room, it being the first time that this room has been used.

First Conference.

The first council between Major James McLaughlin of the Indian service and the Red Lake Chippewas took place yesterday. Chiefs and braves from all over the reservation were there to listen to his proposition for the purchase of the west end of the Red Lake reservation.

It is hard to determine the sentiment of the Indians, but there appears to be no very strong opposition to the proposition. The major has the confidence of the Indians as a man who will see their rights are fully protected and one whose promises are always fulfilled by the government, and this will go far towards simplifying matters.

The anticipated interference upon the part of self-appointed "Indian attorneys" will have to be met, but at this time the outlook seems bright for a successful termination of the negotiations.

The Vice of Nagging

Clouds the happiness of the home, but a nagging woman often needs help. She may be so nervous and run down in health that trifles annoy her. NEW FREIGHT RATES HAVE BEEN FILED

Been Announced.

CARLOAD LOT RATES REDUCED.

Smaller Jobbers Given an Opportunity
Goods Brought in.

The following, of interest to the cities and towns in Northern Minnesota and North Dakota, Brainerd included in the list, is taken from the Minneapolis Times:

"Copies of new merchandise tariffs for several towns in northern Minnesota will be filed with the railroad commission today by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads.

"These tariffs will take the place of the distributing tariffs formerly allowed to St. Cloud, Crookston and Fergus Falls, but cancelled by the roads when they substituted their reduced distance tariffs some weeks ago.

"It was understood that the new tariffs granted to the three towns in question will be allowed to others, or possibly six or eight in all.

"Among them are Moorhead, Brainerd, Fergus Falls, Crookston, St. Cloud, East Grand Forks and others.

"The same concessions will be allowed to Fargo, Grand Forks and one or two other towns in North Dakota, but their tariffs will be filed with the railroad commission of that state.

"One of the chief complaints made against the former tariffs, it is said, was the fact that the Milwaukee & St. Paul line handled freights from Chicago direct into Fargo, N. D., but not through this gateway, at a lower figure than the same freights were handled by the various other lines from Chicago to Minneapolis plus the rates from this city to Fargo.

"In other words, the rates on the Milwaukee line were less than the sum total of the rates from Chicago to Minneapolis and from Minneapolis to Fargo.

"The tariffs to be filed to-day grant further reduction and make the rate so low that the sum of the rate from Chicago to Minneapolis and from Minneapolis to Fargo will be on the same level as that on the Milwaukee line from Chicago direct to Fargo. The other towns indicated will be allowed to enjoy the same equality. The tariffs apply mostly to groceries. It was stated yesterday that the various business interests of the towns mentioned are fully satisfied with the tariffs as drawn up by the railroads. In such case the new tariffs will dispose of the hearing set for to-morrow before the commission."

Cass Lakers All Right.

Relative to the reported prospective evictions of settlers and squatters on the reservoir lands at the headwaters of the Mississippi, Representative Fletcher said yesterday: "I do not think there will be any action of this kind for some time, at least. The reason is that the lands have not yet been surveyed and until this is done the department will not know whether the settlers are on reserved land or not. There is a provision in the river and harbor bill for this survey, which will be made next summer."

Would Smash the Club.

If members of the "Hay Fever Association" would use Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, the club would go to pieces, for it always cures this malady, and asthma, the kind that baffles the doctors—it wholly drives from the system. Thousands of once-hopeless sufferers from consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, owe their lives and health to it. It conquers grip, saves little ones from croup and whooping cough and is positively guaranteed for all throat and lung troubles. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottles free at McFadden Drug Co. and H. P. Can't Keep It Secret.

The splendid work of Dr. King's New Life pills is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice, and indigestion. Try them. 50c at McFadden Drug Co. and H. P. Dunn & Co.

Getting Ready for Business.

The Mississippi & Rum River Boom Co. have begun to put themselves in readiness to resume operations as soon as the ice is off the river. The company put a crew of men at work driving pilings to hold the booms, a work that has to be done each spring and the boats are being overhauled and put in shape. Each winter the pilings are forced out by the ice and these have to be resharpened and driven back into place. The ice on the river is getting a little too soft for this work and the company say they will probably have to lay off men Tuesday night and wait until the ice is gone and then use the boats to finish driving the pilings, unless it turns cold and the river freezes again. In different storage booms along the river there are in the neighborhood of 125,000,000 feet of logs, insuring a good supply for the mills when the river opens. In addition to these there are 125,000,000 additional scattered along between Minneapolis and Brainerd. If the water is high enough these last will be utilized and those in the booms reserved until they are required to give the mills a steady supply.—Mississippi Lumberman.

Coughs and colds, down to the very borderland of consumption, yield to the soothing healing influences of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It is generally conceded that Mr. Esmond has given to the stage a very remarkable and wholesome play, "When We Were Twenty-One," which comes at the right time. It comes as a wholesome check to decadence and degeneracy. It is sweet as mountain air that has been kissed by the heather, and all the men are brave, sympathetic, honest loyal fellows. They are not ashamed to wear their hearts on their sleeves, they do not care how many daws peck at them, so wrote the critic of the New York Herald about the play "When We Were Twenty-One," which will be presented by a fine company at the Brainerd Opera House on Monday evening, March 10.

The Herald was not alone in its opinion; the critics of New York without a dissenting voice, hailed the play as a great acquisition to our present meagre dramatic literature. The press was so unanimous in their praise, that the manager of the Knickerbocker theatre, (where the play was produced) was tempted to slightly change Richard Brinsley Sheridan's famous line: "When they do agree among the press, their unanimity is wonderful." The success of the play was immediate, and being a valuable piece of dramatic property, there were many who desired to obtain it. The engagement of the best company in the country is a guarantee our play-goers will have a great performance.

The play requires the most delicate shading and artistic atmosphere. An ordinary company would fail to appreciate the subtleties of Esmond's delicious writing. This has been carefully guarded against by presenting an organization far above the average in point of dramatic ability.

FIVE MEN ARE KILLED

DISASTROUS EXPLOSION IN A
GAHELA, PA.

RESCUERS DRIVEN BACK

Three Unsuccessful Attempts to Reach the Etombed Men Are Made—Colliery Had Been on Fire Since Monday and the Accident Was Caused by an Effort to Investigate the Workings.

Monongahela, Pa., March 7.—An explosion in the Catsburg mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company resulted in the death of five men and the serious injury of several others, two fatally.
The dead are: Mine Boss Robert Howey, James Howey, Isaac Eastwood, John Giller and William McFarland. The fatally injured are James Hagger and James Terrett.

On Monday a premature explosion of dynamite caused gas to ignite and since that time the mine has been burning. All the air channels were closed and it was hoped that the flames could be smothered. During the morning 20 men entered the mine to investigate. A terrible explosion followed. A relief party made an effort and nearly succeeded in reaching the imprisoned men, but was compelled to return for air. All were overcome and are in a serious condition. A second relief party entered the mine by another way, but a second explosion occurred and the men were forced to retreat. A third relief party made a futile attempt. A fourth attempt will be made to reach the bodies of the men who are believed to have perished. James Hagger was reached by one rescuing party. He was found badly burned. James Terrett was burned by the flames that shot up all around him, but he crawled 1,000 feet from his companion, Gilder, who was killed instantly.

KILLED BY ESKIMOS.

Story of the Fate of Andree and His Companions Confirmed.

Winnipeg, March 7.—A report sent out from the Hudson Bay post of Fort Churchill about two years ago that Andree, the Swedish aeronaut, and his associates, had been killed by Eskimos, is confirmed by advices received at the head office of the company here.
Alston Churchill, factor at Churchill, which is the most northerly post of the great company on the west coast of Hudson's bay, has written that after about two years' search the men sent out by him have returned with a report similar to the one first published.

Traces of the daring balloonist and his associates were followed for hundreds of miles, but it was impossible to locate the tribe who caused their death.

The story of the searchers is that Arctic Eskimos saw an olmiak (one of their largest boats) floating in the air. When it settled to the ground three white men, strangely dressed, came out armed with guns, which they indiscreetly fired. Andree and his assistants were killed with musket bows and everything of value taken.

The searchers found knives, tobacco and cartridges, supposed to be long to Andree, in possession of one of the most northerly tribes, but could get no further information.

News that Andree undoubtedly met his death at the hands of Eskimos has been forwarded to the Swedish government.

DRIFTS TEN FEET DEEP.

Lehigh Valley Blocked From One End to the Other.

Bethlehem, Pa., March 7.—Snow drifts 10 feet deep extend from one end of the Lehigh valley to the other, blocking the trolley roads and the Lehigh and Lackawanna branch of the Jersey Central railroad and choking up every township road between here and the Blue mountains. Reports from Windgap and vicinity say that much live stock has perished. Accompanying the embarrassment of the storm is the announcement by dealers in provisions that a famine is inevitable. It will be a day before milks-men and farmers can shovel their way through the snow drifts to towns.

STEAMERS IN COLLISION.

The Waesland Sunk by the Harmonides Off the Welsh Coast.

London, March 7.—The American line steamer Waesland, from Liverpool for Philadelphia, and the British steamship Harmonides, from Para for Liverpool, met in collision off Holyhead, Wales. The Waesland sank.
The Harmonides rescued the passengers and crew of the Waesland and is bringing them to Liverpool. The Waesland carried 32 cabin and 82 steerage passengers.

The loss of the Waesland was due to the dense fog which enveloped the Irish channel during the entire day, seriously delaying all vessels.

Aid in Building a Gunboat.

Berlin, March 7.—Admiral Valois has presented Emperor William with 300,000 marks in behalf of the members of the German Navy league living in foreign countries towards the construction of a gunboat. His majesty expressed his pleasure at the activity of the Germans abroad in thus contributing toward the expenses for the protection of their interests.

Mrs. Philip D. Armour Married.

New York, March 7.—Mrs. May Lester Armour, widow of Philip D. Armour, Jr., of Chicago, was married to P. A. Valentine, also of Chicago, at the Hotel Netherland. The wedding was a quiet one. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. E. M. Stires of St. Thomas church.

WILL RATIFY TREATY.

Impossible Now to Prevent Sale of Danish West Indies.

London, March 7.—In a dispatch from Copenhagen, published in The Times, the correspondent says that he thinks it impossible now to prevent the sale of the Danish West Indies.
Ninety members out of 114 in the folketing favor it and it is doubtful whether a majority of the landsting will oppose it, although it is a remarkable fact that the anti-sale party is still optimistic. The position of this party, the correspondent continues, has been strengthened by the result of the international sugar conference, which is held to have improved the condition of the Danish colonial sugar producers.

VISIT OLD BATTLEFIELDS.

New Feature to Be Introduced into the Course at West Point.

Washington, March 7.—A new feature is to be introduced into the course of instruction at West Point, its purpose being to give practical ideas in the arts of war, especially military engineering. By direction of the secretary of war the first class of cadets, composed of 54 members, will leave West Point, N. Y., April 10 and make a three days' visit to the battlefield of Gettysburg, Pa., for instruction in strategy and tactics. The time allotted will be devoted entirely to study and instruction. Similar trips to old battlefields probably will be made annually in the future.

Want Universal Suffrage.

Brussels, March 7.—A big demonstration occurred here during the day in favor of universal suffrage. The assemblage sent a telegram to King Leopold urging him to use his power to hasten a solution of the electoral problem. After the meeting a serious collision occurred between liberal and Catholic students. The police dispersed the students with their swords.
Three of the latter were wounded.

Telluride, Colo., March 7.—The bodies of George Rohrer, W. S. Gregory, Harry Chase and W. S. Stanley, victims of the Liberty Bell snowslide, were recovered during the day. One hundred men were at work all day at the scene of the disaster. It is storming and the prospect is that the rescue work will be again interrupted.

Wanamaker at the Vatican.

New York, March 7.—John Wanamaker of Philadelphia, former postmaster general, was received at the Vatican Wednesday, says a World dispatch from Rome, by the pope, together with a delegation of a hundred distinguished men of the French church.
The interview took place in the Consistal hall.

Federal Troops and Mayas Fight.

Meridia, Yucatan, March 7.—An engagement of federal troops and the still warlike Mayas, commanded by Chief Leon, is reported in which the rebels lost 80 killed and 150 wounded.
The encounter took place on the road to Guatemala, near Santa Cruz and Peten.

Oldest Odd Fellow Dead.

Champaign, Ills., March 7.—Rev. S.
K. Reed, a pioneer Methodist preacher, died here, aged 93 years. He was said to be the oldest Odd Fellow living, joining in Baltimore as a charter member.

South Dakota Editor Drops Dead.

Alexandria, S. D., March 7.—L. C.
Taylor, formerly auditor of South Dakota and publisher of the Alexandria Herald, dropped dead during the afternoon from apoplexy.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Professor Moriz Kaposi of the University of Vienna, the celebrated dermatologist, is dead.

The White Star line steamer Celtic, having on board a party of American tourists, has arrived at Califfa, Palestine.

Neil Bryant, an old time minstrel, died in Brooklyn Thursday. He was 72 years old. Bryant was the oldest of those who inaugurated black face minstrelsy.

PRINCE HENRY THE MAN

Personal Characteristics of the Nation's Guest.

LIKES MEN BETTER THAN BOOKS.

Our Royal Visitor Devoted to Practical Jokes on Board Ship, a Watchmaker by Trade and a Bad Shot.
How He Recognized a Stoker on the Kronprinz Wilhelm.

Prince Henry's tastes are simple, and he has an old fashioned hatred of debt, says the New York World.

Emperor William's brother, who is now the guest of the United States, is fond of his pipe or a good cigar, but draws the line at cigarettes. The education of the prince has been both academic and practical. He can speak readily in six languages besides his own—English, French, Spanish, Italian, Russian and Swedish. As an all round musician he has few equals among amateurs, and he is passionatly fond of a stirring march.

As has always been the custom among the Hohenzollerns, he learned a trade in his youth. His brother, the emperor, chose to be a glovemaking, and the prince apprenticed himself to a watchmaker; consequently if Prince Henry were thrown upon his wits for a living he could pay his way anywhere mending clocks and watches. Everything necessary in the sailor's trade he can do, from holystoning the deck to taking his place at the wheel.

When at school, he was not a quick scholar. His restless energy made him feel more at home in the playground than at the desk. His mind is practical, but not brilliant. Books are not so attractive to him as men and ships.

In politics he is a Liberal and consequently in opposition to the emperor.
His views upon the question of government are much more American than German and make him the most popular prince among the royalties of Europe.

Again and again his courage and love of risk have led him into trouble. Several times he has been practically banished from court because of his outspoken expressions of opinion. His first banishment was in 1893, when he was sent abroad for a year because of his opposition to the emperor's army bill.
The emperor ordered his brother never to meddle again with political questions. On another occasion he aroused the anger of the emperor by remarking, "Oh, I'm not afraid of William, for I have read somewhere that since the French revolution he has no power over me."

It is said that the prince once upset the gravity of an entertainment by remarking when an elocutionist was declaring of the beauty of a queen, "The author has probably never seen any queens, or else he would not have written that."

As a boy on board ship he was noted for his frolics and practical jokes.
When prohibited at one time from bathing in icy water, he sprang overboard with his uniform on, swam to the stern and clambered upon deck again.

At another time he put a thaler between his teeth and dashed up the rigging of the ship, crying out, "He who catches me shall have the thaler!" A number of the crew sprang after him and chased him from spar to spar, but the daring young prince dodged all his pursuers and slid down a loose rope to the deck again. Tossing the thaler to the nearest sailor, he said laughingly, "If you are as thirsty as I am you must want it, so here's your money."

In 1893 he was nearly killed by an explosion on the warship Baden and received the cross of distinguished service for his presence of mind on that occasion.
He sprang at once, regardless of risk, to the assistance of the injured sailors and did not rest until every sufferer had been suitably cared for. Two years ago while traveling in Siam he was held up by bandits and robbed of $1,000 in gold.

The prince is a notoriously bad shot.
When a young man, he shot a gamekeeper and wounded him so severely that the poor fellow has been a pensioner ever since. When on a shooting expedition in Greece, he fell and accidentally discharged his gun full into the back of a Grecian dignitary. A month afterward he did serious damage to a Turkish courtier who had been appointed to attend him on a hunting trip.

Queen Victoria once asked him at dinner what sport he had enjoyed in the hunting preserves during the day.
"Well," said the prince, "I didn't kill any birds or any keepers, but I wounded quite a few."

The passengers on the Kronprinz Wilhelm lived with each other the other day in expressions of good will toward Prince Henry, says the New York Journal.

"One of the most democratic men we ever knew; nothing like what we thought a prince would be," was the unanimous opinion of his fellow passengers.

Here is the opinion of one of them:
"The prince," said Benoit Lockwood, Jr., a lawyer of New York, "is very pleasant and democratic. Nevertheless he is a man who when he makes up his mind to do a thing will come pretly near doing it. After luncheon each day he visited the smoking room and chatted with the passengers and his aids. As an instance of the kind of man he is: He was being shown around the ship by several officials. When down in the engine room, he stopped for a moment and looked intently at one of the stokers.

"Why, that man was on the battleship I went to China on; were you not, my man?" asked the prince. The man seemed overjoyed to have the prince recognize him and was unable to say a word except nod his head. The prince remarked that he knew every man who worked under him, and I do not doubt it. The stoker was the envy of all his coworkers during the rest of the voyage.

"I had a short talk with the prince myself just before landing. The prince, who takes a lively interest in sailors, asked what was done toward aiding the ordinary seaman in this country. He was surprised to find that we were so far behind in this respect and that our ordinary seamen received such little protection. I can safely say he is as democratic a man as ever I met. He never talks about anything he knows nothing about, and when he does not know about anything he is not afraid to ask questions."

BULL MOOSE AT BAY.

Fights a Pack of Wolves in Sight of Two Woodsmen.

The other day William Burnett and J. J. Gaynor, two Duluth explorers, wandered at some distance from their claims, thirty-five miles back of Chicago bay, in Cook county, to look at certain lands. While trudging along they came face to face with a great bull moose, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Neither of the men had a gun.
The men realized that the moose meant mischief, and they shinned up a balsam. The moose came up and pawed the snowshoes and seemed disposed to await developments.

Nearly three hours had passed when a pack of twenty wolves cautiously approached the tree. The bull moose was game and signified by his actions that he would fight. The wolves were at first a little disconcerted at the turn affairs, but apparently reasoned that if they could not get a couple of men for supper they would be polite enough not to grumble and take what was set before them, which was moose—a living mountain of moose. The wolves approached the moose from all sides, and then began a battle the like of which few men have ever witnessed.
He struck at the wolves with his forefeet and antlers and kicked at them with his hind feet. The wolves evidently all had in view the idea of hamstringing the moose. A certain number would engage the moose at the head, but the most of them were snapping at the hind legs of the great game animal. Mr. Burnett says that the agility of the moose was remarkable, and he was as strong apparently as a locomotive. He caught and flung the wolves about like chips, and howls of anger and pain rang through the woods. At last, while making a mad lunge to toss some of the wolves, the moose shed his antlers. After one startled look when he realized that he had lost his head weapon the moose turned and fled at top speed.

THE SCHLEY DECISION.

How the Rear Admiral Received the News.

Some of Rear Admiral Schley's friends in New York city are chuckling over the way he received the news of the president's adverse decision on his appeal from the findings of the naval court.

The rear admiral was in New York when the decision was made public, and the news was brought to him by friends. He listened attentively and without comment.

"Well, what do you think of that?"
asked one of the group after waiting in vain for the rear admiral to express himself.

"It isn't said that Cervera got away, is it?" asked the rear admiral, without a suspicion of a smile.

"No; of course not."

"Or that the Spanish fleet ever did business after that day?"

"No."

"Then, after all, we did not fight in vain," said he in a tone of satisfaction, and he changed the subject.—New York Times.

KAISER'S NEW WAR PICTURE

"Germans to the Front" to Be Painted by Roehling.

Emperor William has commanded Professor Roehling to paint a picture of the scene near the Chinese arsenal when Admiral Seymour, commander of the Peking relief expedition, gave orders, "The Germans to the front."

This phrase has thrilled Germany, and Professor Roehling, who, upon Emperor William's orders, accompanied the German expedition to China, has made a study of the battlefield and the arsenal with the painting of this picture in view, says the Philadelphia Press. The picture will be hung in Emperor William's private gallery in Berlin and will represent the German forces on the double quick to the front, with the American and the British troops cheering them.

Latest in Sugar Mills.

Work is soon to be commenced on a sugar mill at Independence, Kan., which will be the only one of its kind in the world, says the Kansas City Star. Cane is the product used, and from it will be made sugar, paper and several other products that will utilize all parts of the cane, many of which are wasted in the process now commonly used. This mill will be an experiment. A syndicate of Chicago capitalists is backing the enterprise and will erect a sixty-five thousand dollar plant. The site is to be donated by Independence. Forty acres of fine bottom land just across the river are necessary for this mill, which will cost over $100 an acre, and a gas well is also to be furnished, which will run the amount required of the city up to about $5,000. The inventor of this new process is S. B. Dennison of Chicago.
